LAKE CLAREMONT PRESS

Lake Claremont Press is part of a booming publishing trend: independent small and micro-presses that succeed alongside the giant publishing houses by specializing in a particular subject. We feature regional histories and guides that aim to help readers better enjoy, appreciate, and understand our small corner of the globe. LCP was founded in 1993 by Sharon Woodhouse and published its first title—Know More, Spend Less: A Native's Guide To Chicago—in 1994. LCP favorites include Chicago Haunts: Ghostlore of the Windy City, Hollywood on Lake Michigan: 100 Years of Chicago and the Movies, Graveyards of Chicago, and The Chicago River: A Natural and Unnatural History. Recent releases include Literary Chicago: A Booklover's Tour of the Windy City, Near West Side Stories: Struggles For Community in Chicago's Maxwell Street Neighborhood, and Chicago's Midway Airport: The First Seventy-five Years. Among the forthcoming titles for 2004 are A Native's Guide to Chicago, 4th Edition, and Finding Your Chicago Ancestors.
